

Religious Exemptions

The Glynn County Board of Assessors would like to remind all churches and synagogues that their ad valorem tax exemptions will automatically renew each year unless a change in ownership has occurred. New ownership has until April 1, 2012 to file an application for exemption with the Property Appraisal Office located at 1725 Reynolds Street, Suite 101, Brunswick in order to obtain such exemption for 2012. If you have any questions, please call us at (912) 554-7093