Readiness: Training ID and Prep Planning (RTIPP) Class

GLYNN COUNTY Ga, In an effort to identify training gaps throughout Glynn County's government agencies, private organizations, and non-profits, Glynn County Emergency Management Agency and Homeland Security is hosting the Readiness: Training Identification and Preparedness Planning class on Jekyll Island on Wednesday, February 20, 2019 and Thursday, February 21, 2019 from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The goal following this class is to implement a 5-year training plan based on the list of prioritized needs addressed during the class, which is hosted by Tab Trexlor the architect, in the McCormick Room at 322 Captain Wylly Rd.

Glynn County citizens are encouraged to participate in this class as well as government and business leaders. Each student needs a Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) student ID number to participate at <https://cdp.dhs.gov/femasid/register>.

To register for this class, follow this link to the Georgia Emergency Management Agency (GEMA) training website:
