

Evacuation Preparation Checklist for RABBITS

FOOD

- Two week supply of pet's normal food
- Airtight, waterproof container for dry food
- Extra food bowl
- Two week supply of hay
- Airtight, waterproof container for hay — seal shut only during transportation

WATER

- Two week supply of bottled water (including enough to clean bowls) — store in cool, dark place
- Extra water bowl or water bottle

SANITATION AND CLEANING SUPPLIES

- Dish soap for cleaning food and water bowls
- Paper towels
- Litterbox (appropriate size for cage)
- Two week supply of carefresh litter
- Scoop for litter
- Plastic bags for disposing of waste
- Disinfecting cleaner for cleaning cage and litterbox

EVACUATION AND HOUSING

- Evacuation
 - Carrier for each rabbit or pair of rabbits
 - EvacSak for each rabbit or pair of rabbits
- Housing
 - Collapsible wire crate (w/room for small litterbox)
 - Large plastic airline crate (w/room for small litterbox)
 - Exercise pen
 - Towel to cover enclosure or cage
 - Frozen liter or two liter bottles of water during hot weather to help prevent heat stroke

FIRST AID KIT AND FIRST AID BOOK

- Red Cross recommended pet first aid kit
- First aid book for rabbits
- Two week supply of any long term medications
- Simethicone
- Powdered Pedialyte
- Critical Care or vegetable baby food
- Oral syringes

PICTURES AND IDENTIFICATION

- Current identification on each rabbit
 - Microchip
 - Tattoo
- Identification page
 - Pictures of rabbit, including pictures with caregivers
 - Written description of rabbit, including distinguishing marks, microchip or tattoo information, and behavioral and medical information

EVERY TWO MONTHS, ROTATE SUPPLY OF:

- FOOD
- WATER
- HAY
- LONG TERM MEDICATIONS
- BABY FOOD/CRITICAL CARE

