Evacuation Lifted

GLYNN COUNTY, Ga.- Glynn County, the entire City of Brunswick, and the Jekyll Island Authority have lifted the evacuation order for Zone A and the barrier islands. The State of Emergency for Glynn County has ended.

ALL roadways are open to the public including the F.J Torras Causeway, the Sidney Lanier Bridge, and the Jekyll Island Causeway. Assessment teams are being deployed to determine the damage to the community and will repair the damage as rapidly as possible. Please be aware of your surroundings. Do not touch fallen power lines as they can be extremely dangerous.

To see real time status of services, potential storm damage and weather reports go to the Glynn County EMA dashboard at: <http://tinyurl.com/EMAdashboard>. For non-emergency calls, please use 912-554-3645 to free up 911 lines for emergency calls.

We will continue to monitor conditions and updates will be available at www.glynncounty.org and on the Glynn County EMA Facebook daily. To stay informed on Jekyll Island-specific updates, visit <https://www.jekyllisland.com/weather-alert/>. We advise the public to use the latest forecast models from the National Weather Service Jacksonville to stay informed between updates.
